RE: Human Rights Campaign PAC - Amended 30 Day Post-General Report
Identification Number: C00235853

Dear Ms. Adams:

This letter responds to your letter of May 13, 2005 requesting additional information regarding the 30 Day Post-General Report. We have amended the report to reflect the revised cash-on-hand.

This report has been amended, along with other relevant reports, to reflect the advance payment from Human Rights Campaign PAC to Human Rights Campaign for future use of corporate services. In addition, the report has been amended to show draws on that advance payment through negative entries on Line 21b and corresponding entries on Line 23 (in the case of an in-kind contribution) and Line 24 (in the case of an independent expenditure). In response to your request, the amendments serve to clarify the amounts originally reported and more clearly identify the advance payment used to make each disbursement.

Specifically, the report has been amended to reflect the advance payment of $9,850 from Human Rights Campaign PAC to Human Rights Campaign. This advance payment was used in part to pay for in-kind contributions in the amount of $25 to federal candidates endorsed by Human Rights Campaign PAC and disclosed on the Post General Report. Each in-kind contribution was for a website endorsement paid for by Human Rights Campaign PAC and individually disclosed on the report.

The amended report clarifies the specific names of the recipients of contributions to committees originally listed as New Jersey Victory 2004 Federal Account and North Dakota Victory 2004 Federal Account. These contributions were made to the New Jersey Democratic Party and North Dakota Democratic Party respectively.

Finally, with regard to reporting of independent expenditures, every effort was made to report on the required schedules. All amounts paid for independent expenditures were disclosed on the regularly scheduled reports.

I hope this additional information answers your questions. Should you need further information, please feel free to contact me at (202) 572-8912.

Sincerely,

Julie Trute
